Italian Liquor

by Shot / Bottle

Limoncello Della Costa - $10.90 / $85.90

Mainly produced in the South of Italy, this Italian lemon liqueur is Italy's second most popular liqueur. Limoncello is predominantly served chilled as an after dinner digestive. Alcohol by Volume of 25%.

Limoncello Antica Distilleria Russo - $12.90 / $95.90

100% hand peeled Amalfi lemons. All natural product with no preservatives or additives. Generous aromas of fresh lemons with a zesty rounded finish. Alcohol by Volume of 32%.

Grappa di Majo Bianca - $10.90 / $95.80

Made from the pomace of grapes. Grappa is primarily used as a "digestive" to aid in the digestion of heavy meals, thus it is also known as an after dinner drink. Alcohol by Volume of 38%.

Grappa di Majo Ambrata - $11.90 / $98.80

Grappa obtained by distilling the solid part of grapes or pomace is the oldest and most traditional distillate of Northern Italy. The term ambrata or amber indicates that the fermenting and ageing of Grappa happened in a small barrel or cask.

Grappa 15 Uomini Barrique - $13.90 / $115.90

The name 15 Uomini Grappa is inspired by the famous Stevenson's novel: The Treasure Island. It's on this island that the idea to sharpen a blend of wine grapes from Campania in a barrel of Caribbean rum came about. Alcohol by Volume of 40%.

Cubacello, Evolution of Mojito - $12.90 / $98.90

Cubacello is the evolution of the Mojito in a 28% Alcohol by Volume liquor. It is the infusion of high quality Mexican rum, biological sugar cane from Brazil and peppermint D.O.P. from the famous Piemonte region in Italy.

Amaro Sanseverino - $12.90 / $94.90

The liquor is the result of a skillful blend of autochthonous herbs. Amaro Sanseverino is produced following the original secret recipe from the Russo family's Materdomini shrine in Salerno. Amaro Sanseverino carries the riches of the fascinating Amalfi Coast and evokes a world of unparalleled beauty. Alcohol by Volume of 30%.

Amaretto Antica Distilleria Russo - $10.90 / $82.80

Amaretto is a sweet, almond-flavoured, Italian liqueur. One should not confuse Amaretto with Amaro, a different family of Italian liqueurs that, while also sweetened, have a stronger bitter flavour deriving from herbs. Alcohol by Volume of 25%.

Sambuca Antica Distilleria Russo - $10.90 / $98.90

A velvety and thick sweet liqueur with intense flavours and delicate shades. It is absolutely transparent and colourless. Upon contact with the palate, it remains smooth. Alcohol by Volume of 40%.

All prices will be subjected to 10% service charge and prevailing government taxes.

Lemon Cream Liqueur - $9.90 / $78.90

Crema Di Limone is a liqueur made with milk cream and the infusion of the lemon peels from the Amalfi Coast in pure alcohol. A delicate liqueur with a distinct lemon scent, it fully expresses freshness and fragrance typical of this fruit. Alcohol by Volume of 20%.

Chocolate Liqueur - $9.90 / $78.90

From a stringent selection of 100% Arabic cocoa comes this creamy chocolate liqueur, excellent as a dessert and on ice cream. Made in the famous Amalfi Coast of Italy. Alcohol by Volume of 20%.

Coffee Cream Liqueur - $9.90 / $78.90

A fine liqueur with a distinct fragrance of coffee, it fully expresses freshness and fragrance typical of this beverage. Strong and delicate on the palate, it also exhibits an intense and pleasant aroma. The cream has a colour tone of the typical Neapolitan coffee, looking dense and compact. Alcohol by Volume of 20%.

Fragolino - $9.90 / $78.90

Liquor made from strawberries. It is ruby red and has a delightful berry taste. A must drink for any holiday season and celebrations. Alcohol by Volume of 25%.
